DERBY BASICS

Two 14-skater teams play two 30-minute periods. Each period consists of multiple "jams." Each jam is an opportunity for both teams to score points. A jam lasts two minutes unless the Lead Jammer calls it off herself.

It is legal for a player to block her opponents with her hips, rear, and shoulders. It is not legal to block to the back, to trip, or to elbow another skater. Players committing illegal actions go to the penalty box for 30 seconds while their team plays short.

Jam Start

Each team fields 4 Blockers and 1 Jammer. Blockers attempt to take the position most advantageous for their Jammer while setting up to block the opposing Jammer. Play starts with a single whistle blast.

Second Pass

In subsequent passes, Jammers earn 1 point for each opposing player they pass legally. The opposing Blockers will try to stop the Jammer, while helping their own Jammer through the pack.

First Pass

During the first pass, the first Jammer to pass all in-play Blockers in the pack legally is Lead Jammer. Lead Jammer status is signaled by the officials blowing two short whistle blasts and pointing at the Lead Jammer.

©2014 Women's Flat Track Derby Association (WFTDA)

JAMMER

Jammers wear a star on their helmets and are the scoring players for each team. The Jammers attempt to pass the opponents as many times as possible by sprinting around the track and lapping the pack.

PIVOT

The Pivot is the Blocker that wears the stripe on her head. She is the only Blocker that is allowed to accept a star pass from the Jammer, thus becoming the new Jammer and gaining the ability to score points.

BLOCKER

The Blockers are simultaneously focused on stopping the opposing Jammer from passing them and assisting their Jammer to pass the opposing team's Blockers. The pack is formed by the largest group of Blockers with players from each team on the track.

Just the Facts

Most people recognize one thing about Pittsburgh's history, that it was known as an industrial hub for coal mining and steel production. Through the mid-1950s, Pittsburgh was the nation's eighth-largest city, accounting for nearly half of national steel output. The city's population swelled to over half a million with European immigrants who moved here after arriving to the United States via Ellis Island. Pittsburgh's patchwork of neighborhoods still retains an ethnic character reflecting the city's immigrant history.

Even though Pittsburgh faced rough times in the 1970s and 80s when steel production all but disappeared from its landscape, it has since reinvented itself as a hub for education, medicine, small manufacturing, and research.

Today, Pittsburgh welcomes visitors from around the globe. Its strengths lie in its authenticity as an all-American city, and its genuine, hard-working, and welcoming sense of community that has transformed it into one of the most surprisingly beautiful and progressive cities in the USA.

Welcome from Steel City Roller Derby

HI YINZ! To begin, you'll probably hear us call you "yinz" a lot. It's the Pittsburgh equivalent of "y'all" or "you guys" or whatever your regionally specific slang for a group of people may be. Anyway, we are so excited to have all of yinz here in our city to play the hard-hitting, exciting, and unpredictable roller derby the D2s are known for! As we welcome yinz, we'd like to give a shout-out to the hard-working and visionary league members who had a dream of bringing a tournament to Pittsburgh and made that dream a reality this year. The members of the Steel City Roller Derby (SCRD) are looking forward to getting to know you and your team and making your stay here memorable and fun!

ABOUT SCRD

Steel City Roller Derby is a skater owned and operated organization. We are Pittsburgh's only all-female roller derby league, comprised of a diverse set of athletes from the nation's home of superb sports teams. SCRD is taking all the action and exhilaration of yesterday's roller derby and combining it with a new level of athleticism, moxie and drive, resulting in a revolutionary sport. With flat track roller derby leagues growing from 30 just a few years ago, to over 200 worldwide today, this new incarnation of an old sport is growing by leaps and bounds!

As a 501c3 non-profit organization, SCRD is committed to fostering serious competition on a local, national, and international level, developing amateur athletes for competition, and promoting the physical and mental strength of all our female athletes.

Our skaters work constantly – both on and off the track and in and out of the gym – to represent Pittsburgh at home and on the road. We compete at the highest levels of gameplay throughout the Women's Flat Track Derby Association.

We Believe

The Women's Flat Track Derby Association is proud to introduce our new international giving program to support global change, We Believe. Based on our shared belief that through participation in roller derby, individuals can change not only their own lives but the lives of people around the world, We Believe is our collective opportunity to work together on global change.

WFTDA Partners With UN Women

The WFTDA will be partnering with UN Women, whose mission is to achieve gender equality and women's empowerment worldwide. Through this partnership, the organizations collaborate on strategic objectives, such as fundraising for and supporting UN Women's One Win Leads to Another program, which uses sport to develop leadership and economic skills in young women and girls.
