WOMEN'S FLAT TRACK DERBY ASSOCIATION CODE OF CONDUCT

INTRODUCTION

The WFTDA is the global governing body for the sport of flat track roller derby and we represent a thriving and diverse roller derby community. Recognizing the immense breadth and depth of our global diversity, we also recognize the common values that unite us as members of the WFTDA.

The WFTDA is dedicated to creating an inclusive environment for everyone, regardless of race, ethnicity, religion, color, national origin, age, disability (physical or mental), sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, parental status, pregnancy status, marital status, political affiliation, military and veteran status, as well as mental health status, socioeconomic status or background, neuro(a)typicality, or physical appearance. The membership of the WFTDA is united by these values, and we celebrate our differences. We will not tolerate sexism, racism, transphobia or homophobia. We will work continuously to combat the effects of discrimination in our leagues and in our communities.

We put forth this code of conduct and set of values, not because we anticipate bad behavior, but because we believe in the already exceptional level of respect among our membership, member leagues and the affiliates within those organizations. We believe that articulating our values and accountabilities to one another reinforces that respect and provides us with clear avenues to correct our culture should it ever stray. We commit to enforce and evolve this code as our membership grows.

The contents of this document are concepts we encourage members and member leagues to apply to their lives in and outside of the WFTDA. This Code of Conduct applies to member interactions in various areas of our shared roller derby lives, including all events hosted by the WFTDA, shared online spaces, social media, member-to-member events and games, member-to-non-member events and games, and any time our membership is representing the WFTDA.

CODE OF CONDUCT

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

This section applies to athletes, members, coaching staff, officials, volunteers, administrators, registrants, or participants of the WFTDA doing work on behalf of the WFTDA. Athletes, members, coaching staff, officials, volunteers, administrators, registrants, or participants should use good judgment, adhere to high ethical standards, and avoid situations that create an actual or potential conflict between their personal interests and the interests of the WFTDA. A conflict of interest exists when loyalties or actions are divided between the WFTDA's interests and those of another, or if a relationship between members and participants of the WFTDA creates or has the possibility of creating partiality. A conflict of interest may also exist when the interests or concerns of an interested party are perceived as competing with the interests or concerns of the organization. There are a variety of situations which raise conflict of interest concerns including, but not limited to, the following:

Financial Interests — A conflict may exist where an interested party, or a personal friend, domestic partner, relative, or business associate of an interested party, directly or indirectly benefits or profits as a result of a decision made or transaction entered into by the organization. An interested party has a continuing obligation to disclose actual or potential conflicts of interest as soon as such potential conflicts are known, or reasonably should be known. An interested party shall complete a disclosure statement to fully and completely disclose material facts about any actual or potential conflicts of interest. The disclosure statement shall be completed upon association with the organization and updated annually. An additional disclosure statement shall be filed at such time as an actual or potential conflict arises. The disclosure statements shall be provided to the WFTDA Board of Directors.

A conflict may also exist where an interested party, or a personal friend, domestic partner, relative, or business associate of an interested party obtains a non-financial benefit or advantage that they would not have obtained absent their relationship with the organization, or where their duty or responsibility owed to the organization conflicts with a duty or responsibility owed to another person or organization. Whenever there is reason to believe that an actual or potential conflict of interest exists, the interested party shall refrain from the proposed action or transaction, especially if actions present create the possibility of partiality.

Athletes, members, coaching staff, officials, volunteers, administrators, registrants, and/or participants should be aware that if they enter into a personal relationship that disallows partiality through favorable or unfavorable treatment, a conflict of interest may exist, which may be grounds for disciplinary action.

Failure to adhere to these guidelines may result in discipline, up to and including expulsion from the WFTDA. If you are unsure as to whether a certain transaction, activity, or relationship constitutes a conflict of interest, discuss it with your league leadership or Member Services Manager for clarification. If you do not feel comfortable discussing your question(s) with these parties, you may report to grievance@wftda.com.
