ABOUT THE HOSTS

Crime City Rollers

We are Crime City Rollers and we come from Malmö, Sweden.

Our league was founded in 2011 by a small group of eager individuals who had a big vision and it involved roller derby. In the beginning, our practice space was the roof of a car park with a view of Malmö. But now, seven years later, with the help of our amazing and supportive city, we finally have our own practice venue, which we call Crime City Hall. In just a few years we have come a long way. We now have three travel teams, the A-team, B-team, and C-teams, and a junior league called Candy Snatchers.

We are so excited to host the first ever WFTDA Division 1 Playoffs tournament in Europe. We really hope you will enjoy the tournament and our great city!

INFORMATION ON POWER OUTLET ADAPTERS

The electrical system in Europe is different from the system in North America in two ways: the shape of the plug and the voltage of the current.

North American appliances run on 110 volts, whereas it's 220 volts in Europe. Nowadays, electrical gadgets are dual voltage, meaning they work on both European or American current. If your item has a range of voltages printed on the item or its plug (for example, "110-220"), you'll be OK using your item in Europe. If your item has a voltage switch marked 110 (US) and 220 (Europe), be sure to switch it to 220 before you plug it in in Europe. There are some older American appliances/gadgets that are not equipped to deal with the differing voltages at all (older hair dryers or irons, for example). For those items, you'll need a voltage converter.

What you will need to plan for though, is the actual plug. To use a wall socket in Sweden, you'll need an adapter. You can purchase an American → European plug adapter in many major department stores, on Amazon, or in most travel stores (Rei, Brookstone, etc). And, if you happen to forget to pack an electrical plug adapter, ask the front desk at your hotel. Many times, they have a collection of converters that they allow patrons to borrow during their stays.

See Malmö from the water by "Rundan", Strömma Sightseeing-boats and come along for a sightseeing on the channels of Malmö. The tour goes under bridges, through parks, and with a personal guide you get a lively story about the history, buildings, and various anecdotes of Malmö. If you want to go on the channel in a smaller group you can rent a pedalo boat (city boats) with friends.

THE SECRET POOL PLACE - BILJARDHUSET

You can enter through a graffitied staircase that opens into the large dimly lit pool hall of your dreams. Challenge some old timers to a game of pool, or play a loud and exciting game of shuffle board. This might be the cheapest beer in town, and is definitely my favorite way to spend an evening. Cash Only.

The afterparty will be held at Moriska Paviljongen, also known as "Moriskan." The venue is located in the heart of Malmö, a park called "Folkets Park", and was built in 1901. It's architecture has oriental influences and won't go unnoticed.

The theme for this evening will be "alter ego," so come as your derby persona, superhero, Queen, Ziggy Stardust, or whomever your alter ego is. Sometime during the evening there will be a prize for the best "alter ego."
