INTERNATIONAL WFTDA CHAMPIONSHIPS

FRIDAY • SATURDAY • SUNDAY

NOVEMBER 9-11

LAKEFRONT ARENA

6801 FRANKLIN AVE, NEW ORLEANS, LA 70122

HOSTED BY BIG EASY ROLLER GIRLS WFTDA.COM/TOURNAMENTS

ABOUT THE HOSTS

BIG EASY ROLLERGIRLS

The Big Easy Rollergirls (BERG) organization was founded in 2004 by a group of tough New Orleans women. BERG began holding practices in mid-2005, and had a dedicated and growing membership when, on August 29, 2005, Hurricane Katrina rolled into town.

In the aftermath of that storm and the levee breaks that followed, the founding members of the Big Easy Rollergirls were scattered and many relocated around the country.

When the flood waters receded and New Orleans began the long rebuilding process, the Big Easy Rollergirls had to do the same. Finally, on September 17, 2016, the Big Easy Rollergirls held their first bout amidst the brightly lit floats at Mardi Gras World.

For many in the league and throughout New Orleans, the Big Easy Rollergirls became a touchstone of the Katrina recovery process, and a great respite from what was still a difficult and painful time in our city's history, earning the tagline "We Skate Through Hell and High Water." Today, BERG has an A/B team structure with three home teams.

HOW TO GET THERE

TO NEW ORLEANS

BY AIR

Fly into the Louis Armstrong New Orleans International Airport (MSY). There is public bus transit from the airport, but it might take too long, depending on your destination. Check the time to make sure it works with your schedule.

BY BUS

Greyhound and Megabus have service to New Orleans.

WFTDA TOURNAMENT INFO

OUR COMMITMENT TO AN ABUSE-FREE DERBY COMMUNITY

The Women's Flat Track Derby Association is committed to hosting WFTDA events free of harassment, discrimination and abuse — where all people are treated with respect, dignity and fairness. As such, we expect all members working at or participating in a WFTDA event to abide by the following.

Everyone is entitled to an environment without:

- Intimidation or threats, e.g., suggesting malicious repercussions to force another person to do something or threatening gestures.
- Physical assault of any type, e.g., shoving, tripping or using physical force on someone or unwarranted physical contact.
- Unwanted sexual attention or type, e.g., sexually suggestive comments, innuendos or non-consensual touching.
- Unwanted photography or video recording, e.g., recording someone without their knowledge or after they've asked you to stop.
- Bullying, e.g., using abusive or insulting language or spreading rumours.
- Stalking, e.g., repeated and unwanted communications or gifts, following someone throughout the event or damaging their property
- If you witness or experience any of the above, you can report it immediately or at any point to a Tournament Staff member wearing a WFTDA badge stationed throughout the venue who will be trained on proper protocol for responding to the situation. You can also email tournaments@wftda.com to notify event staff of an issue. The WFTDA is committed to taking any report of harassment, bullying or discrimination seriously.
- If you are asked to stop any behavior in connection with the above, do so IMMEDIATELY. If you disagree with being asked to stop doing something, bring it up with a Tournament Staff member after stopping. Do not continue the behavior.
- Failure to adhere to the above may result in ejection from current, any or all future WFTDA events depending on severity, persistence or unwillingness to cease said behaviour.

CREATING AN INCLUSIVE ENVIRONMENT

In order to create a better environment for all people, particularly those belonging to marginalized groups, the WFTDA is committed to ensuring that all voices are heard and all interactions are respectful. As such, all participants, volunteers, and attendees are required to make a good faith effort to do the following:

- Communicate openly
- Approach situations with an open mind
- Believe people when they share their experiences
- Accept that others' lives and histories are different from yours
- Accept that others' boundaries (emotional, physical, etc.) may be different from yours
- Stay mindful of how much space you take up (body and voice)
- Be accountable for your actions
- Exercise good judgment
- The WFTDA understands that given the diversity of our community, it is challenging to always be able to determine when your actions encroach on others. As such, it is important to stop behavior when asked, think critically about your behavior and make amends when needed and appropriate.
- Failure to act in good faith, make amends when necessary or severe breaches of the above may result in, including but not limited to, warnings, removal from the current WFTDA event as well as future WFTDA events. It may also result in a formal investigation and follow-up outside of the WFTDA event.
- Guests not abiding by this Guest Code of Conduct are subject to ejection from the venue. In the event that you are refused entry into or requested to leave the venue for failure to comply with the Guest Code of Conduct or follow the venue regulations, you will not be entitled to a replacement or refund for your ticket. THINGS TO DO

- Grab the drink of your choice in a "go cup" (plastic cup) and wander around the French Quarter. Try Royal, Chartres, or Decatur Streets for shops, bars, restaurants, and people watching.
- For history, visit the Historic New Orleans Collection at 533 Royal Street. This private-home-turned museum is free and has rotating exhibits.
- Take a streetcar! The St. Charles line features beautiful mansions and charming live oaks. The Canal Street line can get you to the French Quarter or to one of the biggest cemeteries in the city (at either end of the line). Both streetcar lines, and all city buses are $1.25 per ride. You can also pay via app at RTA.
- City Park and Audubon Park. Both parks are highly skateable in good weather conditions. Audubon is a great spot to take a picnic and gaze at Tulane and Loyola Universities across the street. City Park features the New Orleans Museum of Art, a free sculpture garden, paddle boats and bikes for rent, and even a kids' amusement park called Storyland. Oh, and a beignet place!
- Audubon Zoo, Aquarium, and Insectarium. Exactly what they sound like and AWESOME. Note that the zoo is Uptown by Audubon Park and the Aquarium and Insectarium are downtown.
- Tour a cemetery. There are plenty of tours and plenty of cemeteries, but you can also just go on your own and look around. Please be respectful of our departed citizens. They're our most quiet, well-behaved neighbours.
- Visit a voodoo shop. There's one on Bourbon, but we suggest Voodoo Authentica or Erzulie, both in the Quarter.
- Get your palm read in Jackson Square.
- Eat something delicious. Seriously, if you don't, it's your own fault.
- Follow the city's unofficial motto: "Do whatcha wanna." New Orleans has lots of options and little judgment, so enjoy. Wear that wig, go meet the band, and come back to visit soon.
