AUGUST 31-SEPTEMBER 2

PALACIO DE LOS DEPORTES DE RIAZOR
A CORUÑA, SPAIN

HOSTED BY AS BRIGANTIAS ROLLER DERBY WFTDA.COM/TOURNAMENTS

ABOUT THE HOSTS

AS BRIGANTIAS ROLLER DERBY

As Brigantias Roller Derby was born in the streets of A Coruña, a beautiful small city by the sea in northwestern Spain, in the autonomous community of Galicia. The region's official language is Galician, but Spanish is also spoken.

The league's name comes from the word Brigantia, the ancient name of the city. It is believed that the Celtic tribe Brigantes originated in this area. Brigantia was their kingdom and also the name of their goddess of fire, hearth, poetry, healing, childbirth, and unity. The name is derived from Proto-Celtic "Brigant" meaning elevated, prestigious, and honorable.

In 2012, after discovering there were no roller derby leagues in their city, Lady Moratón and Evil Nurse decided to found their own. They were joined by Poison Isy in 2013, who planted the seeds of what is now the league's organizational committee. As Brigantias started out as an association, training on the street and in public sport halls until January 2016, when we became a professional sport club.

Since then, we have continued to work tirelessly to develop our league and we are now proud to have twenty-four skaters, all of them highly-driven women. In December 2017 we decided to apply to the WFTDA Apprentice Program, to which we were accepted in February 2018. Our team trains in two cities, A Coruña and Santiago de Compostela, coming together every weekend for an intense practice.

As Brigantias actively work toward promoting women's sports in A Coruña, motivating women to live a healthier life while practicing this amazing sport. Our main goal is to advance roller derby in Spain while fostering an environment of diversity, inclusion and respect among athletes. Since the beginning, teamwork, honesty and equality have been our league's core values. We work to eradicate violence against women; to create an inclusive environment for transgender, intersex and gender expansive skaters; and to empower our skaters to fulfil their athletic potential.

BY FOOT

Many are the pilgrims that include A Coruña in their itinerary when completing the Camino de Santiago or Way of Saint James, a pilgrimage route that ends at the Santiago de Compostela Cathedral.

Those traveling to Galicia by sea from Scandinavia, Flanders, England, Scotland, and Ireland historically completed the Camino Inglés (English Way). This variant of the Way of Saint James is 46 miles from A Coruña to Santiago and can be carried out in three stages. Travelers can start their pilgrimage on foot from A Coruña's port, led by the light of the Roman lighthouse known as the Tower of Hercules. After reaching Cambre, the route crosses Abegondo and continues until Hospital de Bruma, where it connects with an alternative English Way that starts in Ferrol. From here we reach Ordes, and then Sigüeiro, the last town before reaching Santiago.

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT A CORUÑA

- The City emblem: The Tower of Hércules is shown in the city emblem, with a skull and two crossing bones (similar to the pirate flag). It represents the creation of the city myth, which says that Hércules defeated the king Gerión in this shore and, after beheading him and burying his head, he built the tower upon his grave. You can visit the Tower of Hércules to learn more of this story, which is also one of the most beautiful places to visit in A Coruña. It is the oldest lighthouse in use in the world, and World Heritage Site since 2009.
- The phantom of Lady Stanhope: San Carlos garden is one of the most beautiful gardens in the city. There is a legend that says it is the resting place of the British General Sir John Moore, dead in Elviña battle on Jan. 16, 1809. Every anniversary of his death his fiancée visits him in this garden, as a phantom.
- The Candy Tower: Artist Pablo Picasso lived in the city when he was a kid, when his father was a teacher in Escuela de Belas Artes. You can visit his home, which is a very recommended museum. He named the Tower of Hércules the Candy Tower, because it has its color when the sun touches its surface.
- The first same-sex marriage of the country: It was celebrated in the city in 1901. Marcela Gracias and Elisa Sánchez got married in San Jorge church. Elisa was dressed as a man to evade the law. When it was discovered, both were excommunicated and prosecuted. They had to flee from A Coruña and they went to Argentina. Their marriage document was never rescinded.
- The cemetery of San Amaro is one of the most beautiful cemeteries of the world. It was built in 1813 and it is the rest place of many notorious men and women of the country. It has three zones: religious, civil and British, and two collective monuments: Mártires de la Libertad (where many German soldiers from the WWII were buried, but they are no longer there) and the Memorial Column of the General Strike in 1901. There is a guided visit every Saturday.

- If you witness or experience any of the above, you can report it immediately or at any point to a Tournament Staff member wearing a WFTDA badge stationed throughout the venue who will be trained on proper protocol for responding to the situation. You can also email tournaments@wftda.com to notify event staff of an issue. The WFTDA is committed to taking any report of harassment, bullying or discrimination seriously.

THINGS TO DO IN A CORUÑA

ESSENTIAL THINGS TO DO IN A CORUÑA IN THE SUMMERTIME

1. Bike or skating route to the Tower of Hércules

This route provides amazing views and has different sections, so you can adapt it to your capability. You can rent a bike or put on your skates or some comfortable shoes to tour the surroundings of the most emblematic monument in A Coruña.

This route allows you to discover the sculptural park of La Torre, whose most famous works include the compass rose and Manolo Paz's family of standing stones.

2. Enjoy the sunset from O Portiño

One of the best places to enjoy the sunset in A Coruña. The young people know this place as an after-hours club, but it is also a good plan during the day. You can relax in its terrace and enjoy the sunset with some background music, played by a DJ.

Watching the sunset from the bar is not the only option. Going up the promenade you can visit the Ventana ao Atlántico of Francisco Pazos (Window to the Atlantic), or the little dock of O Portiño if you continue the path, but it is always better to see the sunset with a beer in your hand, isn't it?

3. Ice cream in La Marina

A cheap and easy plan. We recommend Heladería La Italiana (Avenida Montoto, 9):

<https://www.facebook.com/italianaheladeria/>, one of the most famous ice cream shops in the city, which has been recently renovated. There are many other alternatives such as the classic Heladería Colón (Avenida de la Marina, 26), situated in front of the Colón Theatre; Bico de Xeadro (Avenida de la Marina, 21), and Puerta Real (Calle Santiago, 2) (<http://heladeriapuertareal.com/>).

4. Boat trip of Santa Cristina

Go on a mini cruise around A Coruña bay. The cruise lasts about one hour, and it tours the city inlet. It starts in La Marina at noon, 1 p.m., 4 p.m., 5 p.m., 6 p.m., and 7 p.m. It costs 7 euros, and children under three years old get in free. For more information call: 608 08 47 67.
